

Safety Harness Training

Overview

Falls from height continue to be the biggest killer on construction sites due to workers have a lack of training.

This course provides delegates with a thorough understanding of the need for safety and the dangers associated with work that may require the need for a safety harness.

Who Should Attend?

This course is aimed at managers, supervisors and operative who may require / use fall arrest equipment.

Course Content

The course teaches delegates the following:

- Legislation
- Organisation and planning
- Prevention of falls
- Selection of correct work equipment and restraint systems
- Carrying out inspections of equipment
- Confidently select and don a harness correctly

 DURATION
1/2—1 day

 QUALIFICATION
Certificate of Competence

Please contact us for prices, dates and locations.

This information is for guidance purposes only courses may be subject to change after publication.

